TOKYO, Feb. 19.—Japan, geared to a full war pitch and pledged to establishment of a "new order" in the Far East, today warned Britain of sharp repercussions if assignment of a huge Australian force to Singapore is designed to "intimidate" the Japanese empire.

Shock and surprise was clearly written on the face of Japanese officialdom when news of the Singapore reinforcement was received. Unofficially, it was pointed out that Japan reserves the right to consider it a warlike action.

No Official Comment

The official Japanese (Domei) news agency circulated a report saying official Japanese circles refused to comment on the arrival of thousands of Australian troops at Singapore on grounds that troop movements occur daily from one part of the British empire to another.

But an informed Japanese source declared:

"Japan will regard the movement of troops in a different light if they were carried out with the intention of intimidating Japan or as a provocative gesture."

EDITOR'S NOTE: A dispatch from Shanghai quoted a high Japanese army official there as stating:

"Arrival of the reinforcements at Singapore is all part of the recent intense British propaganda drive against Japan. Undoubtedly it is designed first to influence the current mediation efforts between Indo-

PA NEW OBSERVES

Even tourists do not seem to be on the move this kind of weather. PA New observed cars from Maine, Indiana and Tennessee holed up in a local parking lot yesterday. "The Tennessee car had a trailer attached, and there was smoke from a coal fire coming out the chimney. The Maine car's license bore the inscription "Vacation Land", which seemed a little incongruous at this season of the year.

Announcement from Harrisburg that there are about half a million sugar maple trees in Pennsylvania and that sugar making will be started in the camps within a few weeks, draws attention to the fact that there are still some sugar camps in this immediate district. It's only about a month until the calendar will designate that spring has arrived.

An innovation in the procession of New York taxicabs through this city was noted yesterday when one of the large auto carrying trucks went through with four taxicabs aboard. Usually the taxis are driven through under their own power.

Report German Planes Have Been Making Flights Over Greece

By JAMES E. BROWN

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Press reports that German planes already are flying over Greek territory and that the Reich is bringing heavy pressure upon the Athens government to make peace with Italy aroused intense interest in London today.

Editor's Note: A dispatch from Budapest last night said Greece had formally denied it would engage in peace negotiations with Germany, acting on behalf of Italy.

(At the same time, reports from both Belgrade and Sofia said Bulgaria and Yugoslavia are expected soon to conclude a treaty similar to the new Turko-Bulgarian non-aggression pact. The Turko-Bulgarian agreement has placed Germany in position to threaten Greece with a Nazi invasion if Athens refuses to make peace with Italy.

See Forced Peace Attempt

(Budapest yesterday said it was anticipated Germany would force a Greco-Italian peace similar to that between Russia and Finland last year. It was predicted Greece would be forced to give up some of her territory while retaining her "national honor.")

The London Daily Mirror said that according to latest reports from Greece, German photographic and

Japan Must Withdraw From Axis To Achieve Better U.S. Relations

By KINGSBURY SMITH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Japan must withdraw from the Axis alliance if it wishes to improve its relations with the United States.

As long as Japan remains a member of the axis alliance, the United States government will refuse to consider any compromise arrangement with the Nippon empire concerning the Far Eastern situation.

Furthermore, the United States government will oppose by whatever steps it deems necessary Japanese expansion in the Far East as long as Tokyo remains a member of the axis.

U. S. Policy

This represents the American government's present policy in regard to Japan, International News Service learned today.

This policy is based on the conviction that Japan's presence in the axis alliance constitutes a direct threat to the security of the United States.

It also is based on the position that the United States is definitely committed to the support of Great Britain in the war to halt the extension of German power in Europe and throughout the world.

This government is convinced that if it were not for fear of what the United States would do, Japan would strike quickly at Singapore. Con-

Japanese Foreign Minister

LONDON, Feb. 19.—A message from the Japanese government, deprecating alarmist reports concerning the Far East and presumably renewing Japan's offer to mediate war "anywhere in the world" has been received in London, it was learned today.

Richard Austen Butler, foreign under-secretary, announced in the House of Commons that Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden is in receipt of a "special message" from Japanese Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka.

"The house is aware," Butler said, "that there has recently been increased tension in the Far East over certain events, notably the dispute between Indo-China and Thailand.

"A Japanese official spokesman made a statement to the press yesterday.

EDITOR'S NOTE: In this statement, the spokesman said that increase of hostilities in the Far East was unlikely and told of Japan's willingness to mediate any and all conflicts.

Mr. Eden has received from Mr. Matsuoka a special message in courteous terms and on the same general lines as the spokesman's statement. Terms of this communication at present are receiving due attention."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—For the first time in her peacetime history the United States has more than 1,000,000 men actually under arms, enlistment officers disclosed today.

A total of 1,033,116 officers and men is divided as follows: army, 778,000 navy, 207,510; marine corps, 47,606.

The summary of the three branches followed an announcement by the army that its total alone would reach 1,002,000 by March 1, just 12 days from now.

At the same time, officials of all three services declared that housing facilities and supplies of material and clothing were keeping pace with the expanding forces.

The army, naturally, is the fastest growing. It has risen from a mere 260,949 officers and men last summer, and defense leaders said the goal of 1,400,000 in the land forces by June 30 will be easily reached.

The army at present consists of 56,000 officers and 722,000 men. Of the men, nearly 100,000 are draftees and about 200,000 are federalized National Guardsmen.

While the guard divisions have their own quarters, the draftees so far have been filtered into existing guard and regular army units. By the middle of next month, however, the 21 replacement centers being built throughout the country will then start forming their own divisions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The senate, beginning its third day of debate on the lease-lend bill, today heard Sen. Tom Connally (D) of Texas declare that the western hemisphere is in "danger—real danger"—and that this nation does not intend to let the "rattle of the sword" deter its efforts to make democracy impregnable.

Taking the floor to make the opening administration reply to the assaults delivered against the legislation by its opponents yesterday, Connally charged them with disseminating "misleading" information about the bill.

"There is danger—real danger," he cried. "The cold-blooded dictators, intoxicated by conquest, with their ambitions fanned to fury by the lust for power and mastery of the human race, and backed by the most powerful and relentless military machine known to the annals of war, threaten the security and safety of democracies everywhere.

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The board of directors of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers today voted acceptance of a consent decree which in effect ends the federal government's anti-trust suit against the organization.

Broadcast Music Inc., ASCAP's rival, previously had settled a similar suit.

The ASCAP agreement, it was predicted, will end the radio music war which since January 1 has kept all ASCAP tunes off the three major radio networks. The terms of the decree enable broadcasters to buy ASCAP music on a blanket or on a per program basis.

E. C. Mills, ASCAP administrator, said:

"ASCAP accepts the terms and does not find them too onerous. We do so in cheerful spirit."

Women Pickets Pray On Street

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Approximately 50 women, calling themselves the "Mothers' Crusade Against Bill 1776" (Lease-lend bill) today braved sub-freezing temperatures to kneel in front of the Capitol and pray against passage of the legislation.

They began picketing the Capitol early this morning, bearing American flags and singing "Hallelujah." Capitol police soon forced them to the other side of the street and it was then that they knelt in the street and prayed.

Two of the women were arrested two days ago while picketing and were charged with disorderly conduct. The charges were subsequently dismissed.

SINGAPORE, Feb. 19.—Thousands of Australian troops with full mechanized equipment took up defensive positions throughout Malaya today to guard this vital British far eastern stronghold against any Japanese assault.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Coincident with the arrival of the Australians at Singapore, Shanghai heard reports of heavy reinforcements of the Japanese battle fleet off Saigon, French Indo-China.

(These dispatches said major Japanese fleet units, steaming south from Formosa, with full complements, possibly including large landing forces, joined other warships in the danger zone in the western Gulf of Siam.)

(The London News Chronicle said the Australian force that arrived at Singapore was the largest and most powerful reinforcement of men and guns ever to arrive there. The troops disembarked from a single convoy of liners which made the voyage under protection of Australian and British naval vessels, according to this account.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Senate leaders today were reported to be planning new concessions to forces battling the lease-lend bill as sentiment for the Ellender amendment, designed to bar a second A. E. F., admittedly gained ground.

While the possibility of minimizing opposition by accepting new amendments was being considered, the Senate entered its third day of debate on the "all out" British aid measure.

Sponsors of the measure again took the floor, with Senators Connally (D) Tex., Bailey (D) N. C., Hill (D) Ala. and Murray (D) Mont., being selected to hammer home the administration's case.

Seek To Speed Debate

Speeding up the tempo of debate—partly by refusal of administration senators to question foes of the bill at length—leaders voiced hope of reaching a final vote the middle of next week.

The conciliatory attitude of administration leaders did not, however, extend to the Ellender amendment. It was flatly rejected as unnecessary, but sponsors of the proposal hoped to write it into the bill over administration objections.

Zero Weather Is Predicted For Pittsburgh Area Tonight—
Near Zero Today

(International News Service)

Near-zero weather kept the shiver-blitz on Pennsylvania today.

Central and western areas reported the lowest temperatures but "continued cold" forecasts were general throughout the state.

Pittsburgh had an official downtown reading of 11 degrees above zero, while the mercury hung at seven degrees at the county airport outside the city. Harrisburg reported 18 degrees as did Philadelphia.

Zero weather was predicted for tonight at Pittsburgh.

The western Pennsylvania major rivers were ice-locked above Pittsburgh with surfaces frozen from one-half to two inches in depth, the weather bureau reported. Locks areas on both the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers were frozen at upstream points.

On the Allegheny river Parkers Landing had a "low" of five above, Franklin reported 11, while in central and eastern Pennsylvania these readings were taken: Tylertown, 8; East Waterford, 3; Wilkes-Barre, 11; East Waterford, 3; Wilkes-Barre, 11; Zieton, 10.

It isn't so cold by the mercury, the reading is twenty-one, but the wind is cold as it whizzes by and today isn't run. It hits you flush in the dark brown eyes and slides down inside your coat, it cools your nose and your chest and knees and all in all gets your goat. But blow old wind if you feel that way, for some day you'll blow the cold out, and the warming breezes can take your place, next spring or say thereabout.

Confer On Sewing Project Dispute

Seek To Prevent Halt Of Project

Chairman Shaw Of Legislative Committee, In Washington, On Controversy

HOPE EXTENSION WILL BE GRANTED

By RAYMOND WILCOVE

HARRISBURG, Feb. 19.—A complete stoppage of relief payments to 650,000 persons receiving public assistance was threatened today even as the state attempted to prevent the dismissal of another 12,000 women employed on W. P. A. sewing projects.

As secretary of public assistance Howard L. Russell warned a senate committee that sufficient relief funds remained for only another 10 days, the senate and house headed for a conflict over the $14,500,000 deficiency appropriation now being rushed through the legislature.

Confers In Washington

In Washington, Rep. William A. Shaw, (D) Pittsburgh, chairman of a house committee, hastened to confer with acting W. P. A. commissioner Howard Hunter in an effort to prevent the threatened closing at midnight of 250 Pennsylvania sewing projects. A dispute between Gov. Arthur H. James and the state W. P. A. over the amount the state should pay to support the projects has held up the renewal of the projects.

National W. P. A. headquarters will grant a three-day extension of two weeks, thus averting a shutdown, according to a reliable source.

Threatened Shutdown

The threatened senate-house deadlock over the relief deficiency appropriation arose when the senate amended the measure passed by the house to retain in the governor's hands sole authority to allocate funds to the state treasurer and auditor for disbursing and auditing the relief expenditures.

"We intend to stand pat on the house measure which provides that this authority shall rest in the hands of the auditor general, state treasurer and governor," commented House Majority Leader Leo A. Acherman, Monroe, when informed of the senate action.

"The measure will have to go to a joint conference committee," he added. The appropriation bill is expected to be passed by the senate next Monday in the regular course of events, being up for second reading today. Both houses were slated to adjourn today for the remainder of the week.

JAPAN MUST QUIT AXIS TO ACHIEVE BETTER RELATIONS

trol of Singapore would give the Japanese navy control of the Indian ocean—and consequently threaten the back door to the Suez canal and the Mediterranean.

Such a development, in the opinion of this government, would merely serve to strengthen Germany's position in the European conflict, and in world affairs generally.

To Halt Move

Therefore, the United States government intends to do what it can to stop any Japanese move against British interests in the Far East. By protecting British interests, it feels that it is protecting American interests.

The extent to which this government is prepared to go in stopping Japan, and whether it is prepared to risk war in so doing, depends entirely upon developments.

The American government, moreover, feels that Japan and not the United States is responsible for the present unsatisfactory relations between the two countries.

Japan, it is felt, has not only threatened American interests in the Pacific, but has joined the axis to threaten U. S. interests throughout the world. Therefore, if Japan sincerely wishes to improve relations with this country, the American government feels that it is up to Tokyo to show proof of its sincerity by withdrawing from the axis alliance.

This government does not consider that its present policy is aimed at provoking trouble with Japan. The primary purpose of that policy is in relation both to the Far East and Europe is to serve notice on the totalitarian powers that the United States has no intention of being conquered one day because of failure to arm and protect its interests.

In the light of this policy, the American government feels that the mission to this country of Admiral Kichiro Nomura as ambassador is doomed to failure if he is proceeding on the assumption that he will be able to persuade the United States to acquiesce to Japan's plans for the establishment of a "new order" in the Orient.

Knudsen Favors 'Cooling Off' Time Prior To Strikes

Suggestion To Halt Strikes In Defense Industries Heard By Committee

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—William S. Knudsen, director of national defense production, told the house judiciary committee that he favored provision in labor agreements for "cooling off" periods before strikes could be called in defense industries, but cautioned congress against trying to write it into law.

"Does that mean that you would make it unlawful to strike during the cooling off period?" asked Rep. Elliot (D) Mass.

"No, I don't think so," Knudsen replied.

"How would you get the cooling off period into an agreement?" asked Chairman Sumners (D) Tex.

"By negotiation."

"Suppose they refuse to negotiate?"

"I think the public interest would bring about a just reaction," said Knudsen.

Although conceding that strikes have caused some delay in the defense program, he warned the committee that while it could enact anti-striking laws, getting them "enforced is another thing."

SINGAPORE MOVE BY GREAT BRITAIN SHOCK TO JAPAN

China and Thailand and secondly to divert Japan from her southward expansion program."

May Be "Incident"

London, Feb. 19.—Belief that Japan may seize upon reinforcement of Britain's base at Singapore as an "incident" to provoke a far eastern blow-up was expressed by unofficial circles in London today.

Apprehension along this line was voiced after Japanese spokesmen declared the dispatch of thousands of Australian troops to Singapore was not a move calculated to improve the troubled far eastern situation.

Many London quarters expressed the view that Japan has been waiting for some development which could be used to precipitate warfare in the Orient, and that she may leap upon events at Singapore as an excuse for her long-threatened drive to the south.

Official circles, however, advanced the opinion that the British have taken a perfectly "natural" step in reinforcing Singapore's defenses, and that Japan cannot interpret it as anything but a purely defensive move.

However, the gathering far eastern crisis once again dominated the attention of British authorities.

Two striking overnight developments were responsible for the new display of interest in the Orient: 1. Arrival of thousands of Australian troops as reinforcements at the gigantic far eastern British base at Singapore.

2. President Roosevelt's action in banning foreign ships and planes from various United States bases in the Pacific.

Today's headlines in British newspapers were reminiscent of those during last week's far eastern scare.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph.D.

BOY BEAMS ABOUT WORK

Many parents take the trouble to write me that some particular suggestion of mine in this column, or advice in a personal letter, worked. Some other parents also let me give you ideas they have hit upon themselves.

Here is a sample:
"Dear Dr. Myers: As a mother of seven children I read your daily articles with a great deal of interest and have successfully tried out your advice a number of times. "I feel I am not big enough for this job of mine without outside help occasionally and appreciate the opportunity presented by your daily newspaper. I would like to tell you of something I tried with one of our boys age twelve. Other mothers may have used the same plan, but I have never heard of it and it is with the thought that it may help some one through one of the many problems that comes with bringing up a family, that I pass it on.

The System Worked

"This youngster had an idea he should be paid for every little thing he did around the house. I thought perhaps he was tired of his own chores so we traded with one older. No change, so I decided that, since he is a bit miserly about his allowance, he should have more money of his own. Still no change, so one day I gave him a glass jar full of change and told him we would make a business arrangement about our chores. I would pay him for every thing he did and from the jar of money he was to pay me for everything I did for him. He was to set the price. He was delighted and, as he had so few things to do each day, he hunted for jobs. At the end of the day I gave him a list of the everyday things I had done for him, he paid me and I paid him.

"Needless to say his money was soon gone. I did not mention replacing it and he never again even acted like he should be paid and is satisfied with his allowance."

Another mother writes:
"Dear Dr. Myers: Your article appearing in today's paper prompts me to write in reply to your appeal for a better understanding between you and your readers.

"I have found it necessary to write to you for advice on my particular problems because I always had the answers before they were needed.

Followed Doctor's Advice
"For fifteen years I have been storing in my mind's storehouse your methods on child training and that when a problem arises I can turn to the best of my ability meet it half way at least.

"I cannot say that I have found all your methods helpful but I can say I have found a fair trial over a reasonable period of time and my successes have far outnumbered my failures.

"I have two children, Mary Jane, 13, and Lloyd, 2. They are as different as day and night. Mary Jane is mild and sweet tempered, always ready to cooperate and Lloyd is stubborn and self-willed. Each requires a different kind of handling that I know I could never manage without the knowledge I have gained.

"I thought I knew all about children when I married as I managed as many as six at a time in school but what a difference when they are twenty-four hour a day cares. What I didn't know would fill a book. This is one good reason why I stick to your methods. You must have found your own children a problem at home, too, for I often read such statements as 'it worked with mine.' I tried it on the children. I made mine responsible, etc., etc."

At no time shall I ever hesitate to write for advice or feel that you will be unresponsive to my appeal. Though I have never had the pleasure of meeting you I feel you are one of my best friends.

"Thank you again for your help. Such letters make me feel humble but spur me on to strive harder to write a useful column.

Many persons think history is made slowly, and painstakingly. That was true in the old days, when the work was done by hand. But now, with history-making motorized, a job that once required years to complete is completed within a week or two.

As the car whirled around the corner of the East Washington street bridge, the fat lady was jostled against the thin woman, who turned to her neighbor and said: "It certainly is a shame that they don't charge by weight on these street cars."

"If they did," the fat lady retorted, "it would hardly pay them to stop for some people."

Washington officialdom doesn't take a full face value of Rome's denials of rumors of anti-Fascist disorders in various Italian cities.

It doesn't seem possible, at this end of the line, that Italians can be otherwise than tremendously upset by their army's repeated defeats by the Greeks and the rapidly approaching loss of their whole African empire. In Africa it's bad enough for them to be driven into oblivion by the British, but to be chased out by Haile Selassie and his Abyssinian followers! That's the limit!

They not only can't lick the Greeks; they can't even lick the Ethiopians. Worse, they're being licked by 'em.

True, this news unquestionably is being more or less kept from the Italian people at home by Benito's censorship. Still, it's reckoned that they can't but get some inkling of what's going on. It's inconceivable that it isn't unfavorable advertising for Signor Mussolini.

THE WORLD and the Mud Puddles

WE MUST CHOOSE.
It is probably with a feeling of resentment or futility that many Americans today entertain the notion that the United States may once more be on the road to war. It would be strange if members of a traditionally peace-loving nation did not share those sentiments and fears.

Yet if, scarcely one generation after the world-wide conflict, this country finds itself engaged in an even more formidable armaments drive, it would seem a favorable time to take stock of our ideals of peace and of our steps to maintain it.

Since the armistice, no nation has been as aggressive in the pursuit of peace as it was in the pursuit of victory during war. Yet peace requires continuous, concerted effort, economic, political, cultural and diplomatic, by all those powers who have a stake in preserving it. It cannot be achieved by passing resolutions in favor of it, nor leaving its quest to a few professional peace groups of good intentions but small influence. This nation obviously has a stake in the world that is both peaceful and prosperous, for a world shaken by war or economic upheaval disturbs our security. It follows that for any large nation in the tightly knit world of 1941, there are no foreign wars. There are only wars which to a greater, or lesser, degree affect its security and interests. Statesmanship calls for a determination of the degree to which the nation's security will be affected by the outcome of conflicts among other powers.

Since the prestige and resources of this nation are second to none, any step this nation takes can prove decisive in affecting the course of world events. Whether, in a given situation, this country decides to act or not to act, its choice in either event is of decisive importance. We do not escape responsibility, or necessarily insure our safety, by taking no step. We simply alter the outcome of events in an entirely different direction than if we had chosen to act. It is ours to make the choice.

Speed Of Italian Rout Amazing
Experts Bewildered By Debauch
Discredits Mussolini's Ability

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Italy puzzles Washington's military observers of the war situation and its diplomatic observers alike. One hears expressions of their bewilderment on every hand. "They didn't consider the Fascist realm a formidable fighting power any of the time, but they didn't expect it to fizzle so completely and as rapidly as it has. They are glad that it's done so, but they certainly are surprised."

Duce Mussolini never was popular here, but he was rated as a strong man and his judgment was rated as pretty good. He took his country in hand at a juncture when it undoubtedly was in a shocking state of disorganization and soon set it a-running not unsatisfactorily in an economic and industrial way. He did it at the expense of its liberties, to be sure, but he systematized things quite effectively. As a dictator he wasn't liked, but he was assessed as a competent one of his pattern and as thoroughly tough.

It was taken for granted, too, that the bulk of Italians must be solidly behind him—not the ones he castor oiled, of course, but the big majority. Otherwise, it was argued, he couldn't be getting away with his program so successfully.

But if so, the query is, why don't they fight for him any more capably than they do? Poor leadership? Yes, but primarily it's Benito's leadership, and previously it had been supposed that his leadership and general management were first class—of the dictatorial brand.

As remarked above, nobody surmised that Italy could make much of a showing at war, single handed, with a premier power. When Benito undertook to invade Greece, though, I heard it spoken of by recognized authorities in Washington as comparable to an assault by Joe Louis on a six-year-old kid. And look what's followed.

Upsetting, at Least!

The Scrapped Plan

Washington, Feb. 19.

ONE of the great obstacles to keeping a democratic form of government such as ours in a reasonably healthy state is the vast inertia of the people—the inability to get a majority of them effectively aroused about the same thing at the same time. It is true that public sentiment can check the follies and excesses of the politicians, but public sentiment is exceedingly hard to direct in a nation of 135,000,000 individuals, the bulk

BESSEMER WOMAN'S CLUB BANQUET AT CASTLETON

One of the loveliest parties of the season, and an event that will go down in the annals of the Bessemer Woman's club, was the banquet party served in The Castleton on Tuesday evening, when club members entertained their husbands and friends.

Upwards of 85 were in attendance, and at the chosen hour a most delicious full course menu was served at nicely arranged tables, the patriotic theme predominating. Arrangements were in the hands of the drama group of the Bessemer Woman's club, headed by Miss Esther Landman, chairman, with Mrs. Wilbur Miller assisting.

At the conclusion of the serving an entertainment program was presented featuring as guest speaker, Gunther Obstler, instructor in Westminster college, who was introduced by Miss Landman. Prof. Obstler related his personal experiences in England, France, Germany and Czechoslovakia. In addition, he commented on the European situation today.

Preceding the address a one-act play, entitled, "Fathom Gentlemen", was well presented by the Geneva college drama group, which was well received.

Soloist of the evening was Miss Virginia Krohn, who sang four numbers, "Coming Home", "My Curly Headed Baby", "Little Boy Blue" and "Tis Morning". Mrs. Gertrude Trobe of Beaver Falls, her accompanist, pleased with a reading, "Mrs. Tremble Visits the Dentist".

The next regular meeting of the club is scheduled for March 25, with Miss Mary Nord as chairman in charge. The program will be in the nature of a "treat night" presentation.

Louis E. Simon Corps

Louis E. Simon Relief Corps gathered in Modern Woodman hall on Tuesday evening for their regular meeting with Mrs. Susie Allison presiding, when routine affairs were considered.

A social time ensued, with cards as the diversion. Mrs. Blanche Lewis and Mrs. Bertha Daugherty won the honor prizes, while in other contests featured, Mrs. Sadie Parks and Mrs. Florence Hoover were winners.

Mrs. Wallace and her committee later served refreshments, and plans were made to meet again on Tuesday, March 4, at the same place.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 19.—The governor's reception, tendered for approximately 500 members of the Senate and House, cabinet officials and newspapermen, today was declared the most colorful since World War days.

Brightened by dress uniforms of army, navy and marine officers, the reception last night was given by Gov. Arthur H. James and his daughter, Miss Dorothy James.

Greeting guests as they arrived, were the governor, still suffering from a severe head cold that has confined him to the executive mansion for several days; Miss James, president pro tempore of the Senate, Charles H. Ealy, and Mrs. Ealy, and speaker of the House, Elmer Kilroy, and Mrs. Kilroy.

Faces Charge Of Shoplifting Here

Police Say Same Man Was Arrested Here For Similar Offense 8 Years Ago

Eight years ago, John Fredericks of Youngstown, now 34, and who was born in Europe, was arrested here for shoplifting, police say. And the saying that "history repeats" is borne out in this case because he was arrested here again yesterday on the same charge, they add.

He reportedly went into Penney's store, Calvin Rasey and Robert Frazier saw Fredericks leave the store with two leather jackets beneath his overcoat. The store attaches seized and took him to police headquarters.

Fredericks was recognized by Chief of Police Willis G. McMullen although it has been eight years since Fredericks last was arrested here. His department of justice record shows he has been often arrested for petty shoplifting.

Chief of Police McMullen preferred a charge of larceny against Fredericks, and after he pleaded guilty Alderman W. J. Ewing held him for court.

Vast Network Of Super-Highways Plan Suggested

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—A vast network of super-highways, running the length and breadth of the nation, to be paid for by the five and ten cent people, had been advocated in the house today by Rep. Snyder (D) Pennsylvania.

Snyder's system, he explained to his colleagues, would comprise six 10-cent toll highways running north and south and three running east and west across the nation—something like 16,000 miles in all.

Snyder envisioned concrete roads 100 feet wide, with eight lanes, bypassing cities, with no obstructions along the right-of-way and a curb-height lighting system.

The Pennsylvania, whose state boasts a $65,000,000 super-highway from Pittsburgh to Harrisburg, estimated the cost of his projected system at $8,000,000,000 or about $500,000 per mile, which he suggested be paid by the "five and ten cent people". Snyder pointed out that the average man or woman might make quite a "beef" if they got an annual road or speed tax for $20 or $30, but they might spend five or ten cents a crack to use highways, spending the $20 or $30 a year anyway, and "not complain about it at all".

House Pledges To Support Funds For Sewing Projects

By RAYMOND WILCOVE

International News Service Staff

HARRISBURG, Feb. 19.—The house today entertained a resolution pledging support of an appropriation for state W.P.A. sewing projects as senate Democratic leaders accused Gov. Arthur H. James of "minimizing" needs of unemployment relief in his budget for the next biennium.

A resolution presented by Rep. J. Noble Hirsch, Schuylkill Democrat, pledged the legislature to adopt an appropriation bill furnishing the necessary 25 per cent. contribution by the state for the sewing projects.

Majority Floor Leader Leo A. Acherman termed the resolution "a gesture" pledging the house alone to help save the jobs of 12,000 women project workers. It will be referred to the appropriation committee and may be reported out Monday night.

SCARLET FEVER—III

I have known families who hid from the doctor the fact that there was a case of scarlet fever in the home. They did this deliberately because they didn't want to be quarantined and force the adults to stay home from their jobs or school.

Sometimes the case is fairly mild, and they try to convince themselves that the telltale rash they see isn't scarlet fever rash at all, or that it isn't a dangerous disease. If people would only realize what serious consequences this action can have, they would take no chances.

I remember one such case vividly. I was called to a home where one of the small children was ill. When I got there I found a little girl with a raging fever and delirious and showing symptoms of scarlet fever no one could mistake.

The family had concealed the illness to avoid being inconvenienced by a quarantine. It was only when she began having convulsions they got frightened and sent for me. The child never recovered from that attack. She died and I remember telling those parents that if they had been more concerned with the health of their child and less about being quarantined that she wouldn't have died. I may say that family never called me again, which was perfectly alright as far as I was concerned.

Some persons look on quarantine as just an arbitrary thing with no basis in reason. This, of course, is ridiculous. We know that a patient who has scarlet fever carries the infection with him for four weeks and during that time he may give it to anyone.

If you hide the fact that you or someone in your home has scarlet fever, and you mingle with others, you not only spread the infection, but you may be bringing death to someone.

If your child is unfortunate enough to contract scarlet fever, he should be isolated at once. If he has brothers and sisters who haven't had the infection, every step should be taken to protect them from the infection. If you are careful, you can often prevent other members of the family from getting it.

When the child is completely isolated, he must then be given the most careful nursing and no one but his nurse and his doctor should be allowed in to see him while the disease is running its course. The disease is so infectious that every effort should be made to confine it to one room, or at least to one part of the house.

If it is possible to take a child with the disease to a hospital, I advise it. When you have your child there, you are then in the best position to handle any of the complications that so frequently arise from the disease.

Americans Spend Billion Yearly For Recreation

By ERIC FRIEDHEIM
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Americans are spending more than a billion dollars a year for amusements, ranging from movies to playing domino, the Census Bureau reported today.

The bureau's latest survey shows some 45,000 places of recreation are in operation, including theaters, pool-rooms, athletic fields, bathing beaches, horse and dog tracks, shooting galleries, baseball diamonds, dance halls, swimming pools and other diversion spots. The average family is paying out approximately $30 a year to these places.

Only those amusement places which openly are operated for profit are included in the bureau's list. Taking a conservative view on the nation's pleasures, the bureau is making no estimates on how much is spent for college sports, or in gambling casinos or golf clubs.

Night clubs, which dig a healthy chunk out of the American pocket-book are not classified as amusement. As far as the government is concerned, night clubs are just ordinary "eating places."

15,115 Movie Theaters
Motion picture theaters are still the chief source of diversion for the populace, the bureau found. A year ago, approximately $675,000,000 slid over the box-office counters of 15,115 movie and vaudeville houses.

Bowling alleys are in second place. People spent $49,000,000 trying to roll strikes and spares during the year. Horse race tracks are in third place. Taking in $40,700,000 a year. The pool-hall is still one of the nation's major industries, the bureau noted. In 1939, Americans paid $38,631,000 for the privilege of clicking the ivory.

Baseball, the so-called national pastime is in sixth place among the professional amusements listed by the bureau. The diamond sport took in $25,000,000, which is about $7,000,000 less than the box office gross of legitimate theaters and opera houses.

Dance halls are right behind baseball as money makers, with devotees of the glide, swing, rumba and other forms of terpsichore paying out $14,100,000 to these establishments.

New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey paid $302,000,000 for professional amusements in 1939; New England, $73,400,000; the Pacific states, $122,000,000; Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, $202,000,000; the South Atlantic states, $97,000,000.

Bessemer Boy Scouts On Hike

Boys In Bessemer District Have Special Service In Presbyterian Church

There were 31 Boy Scouts and their leaders, representing three of the five Bessemer district troops, on a hike to the day camp at Cunningham farm, February 15.

The boys assembled at the Bessemer water tower and played "stump-the-leader" while enroute to the farm.

After camp was set up, fires for cooking were built and a meal was prepared. The meal featured barbecued ham, boiled potatoes, beans, bacon and cocoa. Before returning to town the boys enjoyed several games.

On February 16, a special scout service was held in the Bessemer Presbyterian church, with the scouts and scouters attending in a body. Rev. Raymond Touvell, pastor, gave a special talk to the scouts, stressing things expected of persons belonging to the organization.

Baby Is Born In Auto Stalled In Deep Snow Drift

Sub-Zero Drama Is Reported From Vicinity Of Grove City

GROVE CITY, Pa., Feb. 19.—A sub-zero drama with a happy ending was enacted on the snow-choked Branchton-Harrisville road Tuesday morning when Mrs. John H. Grossman of Branchton gave birth to a son in the family car, which was hopelessly stranded in a drift. Mrs. Grossman was alone in the car, her 20-year-old son having gone for help.

The mother and seven-pound Robert Lee are doing well in the Osteopathic hospital here, although a considerable time elapsed before a physician could back the drifts to the Robert Bean farm, where the woman and baby had been taken. A dozen men pushed the car to the house, rather than carry the woman and baby through the blizzard. The thermometer stood at 6 degrees below zero.

Mrs. Grossman and her son started to drive to the hospital here about 1 a. m., but had gone only a mile when the car stalled in a drift. Unable to free it, John Jr. went for help. When he returned the baby had been born. A physician was called and gave first aid. Mother and baby were taken to the hospital when daylight came. Mrs. Grossman is the mother of nine children, eight boys and a girl.

Do you have to "TUCK YOUR CAR IN" at night?

Not if It's One of these Four New Additions to the Buick SPECIAL Line that Compact Automobile Bigness into Fewer Bumper-to-Bumper Inches

HERE of late the modern automobile has been giving a pretty good imitation of a man getting up in the morning.

It has stretched and s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-d—until today you almost have to have a shoehorn to get a car of any size tucked away in the family garage.

We thought something ought to be done about that.

So today in Buick dealers' showrooms you'll see four new models, additions to the 1941 Buick SPECIAL line.

They are typical Buicks on every count—trigger-quick, steady, tireless travelers with a big 115-hp.

Buick FIREBALL straight-eight under their bonnets.

They dress every mile you travel in trim Buick style—cradle every yard of distance on soft all-coil springing. They top off every trip with an even greater measure of gasoline economy, thread traffic with a new nimbleness, and when it comes to parking find the proverbial dime roomy as a dance floor.

But by the simple step of compacting all this ability, goodness and value on a 118-inch wheelbase, we've trimmed inches off the over-all length—and dollars off the cost.

We're passing those dollar savings on to you, which makes three reasons for going to see these honeys now: You'll go for their ability—your wife will go for trim size and easy handling—and both will stand up and cheer for the easily-reachable price.

Chester V. Rodgers Is Elected Chief Of Fire Department

Well-Known Local Man And Member Of Volunteer Department For 22 Years Is Chosen

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 19.—Chester V. Rodgers, Wayne avenue, a valuable member of the Fire Department for twenty-two years and a paid driver for the past three years, was elected Chief of the Ellwood Fire Department at a special meeting of the Boro Council held last evening in the city building.

Charles West was elected a driver of the department to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of the popular Mr. Rodgers.

The vacancy in the fire department has existed for several months following the illness and death of former chief, Harry V. Wolfe. After long discussion, Council finally agreed by an 8 to 2 vote to elect a local man and three nominations. Acting chief Earl Mowery and Drivers, Rodgers and Robert Henry were made. The first two votes resulted in 5 for Rodgers, 3 for Mowery and 2 for Henry. In the third ballot the low man was dropped and the final vote was 7 to 3 for Rodgers. A motion that the new chief be placed on probation for six months was offered by J. C. Boyd but failed to get a second.

Bjordi and Lanzl voted against electing a driver last evening. Three applicants were nominated: Robert Dambach by J. C. Boyd, Charles West by A. J. Howell and W. B. Kay by Robert Curry. The final vote was Dambach 2, West 7, and Kay 1.

Boro manager Lowell W. Monroe suggested that the new chief and driver begin their services today because the expected passing of the lend lease bill will be a signal for sabotage and no one knows where it will occur.

The chief will begin at a salary of $155 which will be later increased to $165 per month. The driver will be paid $135 and after 6 months will be paid $145 per month.

Margaret Pugh Class Has Dinner

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 19.—Margaret Pugh class members met, with a good attendance, for a tureen dinner at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. A red and blue color scheme was carried out in the decorations.

This class had adopted a British orphan and has voted to contribute so much a month for its support. As a feature of the program, two readings were presented by Miss Alice Shirley, after which Miss Gardner gave a talk on home mission work in Kentucky. The remainder of the time was spent in folding bandages for the local hospital.

The committee in charge of last evening's meeting included Mrs. Lyle Colmery, Mrs. Carl Runyan, Mrs. F. Swanson, Mrs. Harry Stillwagon and Mrs. Harold Seidel.

The class will meet again on March 18 at the church.

Lilyville Class To Conduct Survey

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 19.—The Pals class of the Lilyville Church of God will conduct a survey of community residents to ascertain what church they attend or their church preference. After the survey is made, the class will give the lists to ministers of the community.

Plans for their worthwhile activity were made by members of the class last evening at the February meeting held at the home of Raymond Best, of the Zelenople road. Twenty-five attended with the meeting being conducted by Zachary Sockack.

Games and contests were enjoyed with the group being served a delicious luncheon by Mrs. Elmer Best.

Another meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leininger, of Zelenople.

At tonight's service beginning at 7:45 p. m., the topic will be "The Three Imperatives of the Gospel of John."

On Saturday evening an entirely musical program will be presented.

MEADOWLARK TROOP

WHISTLES WAY TO MOVIE CHANCE

Miss Mauricette Melbourne

The role of Rima in the film version of W. H. Hudson's classic romance, "Green Mansions," goes to Miss Mauricette Melbourne, above, daughter of an Australian physician, partly because of her extraordinary gift for whistling. Noel Coward, producer-actor-playwright, described Miss Melbourne's whistling as "the most exquisite thing I have ever heard."

Electric Current Rates Are Studied By Boro Council

New Contract At Reduced Rate Expected To Be Presented By Power Company

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 19.—When members of the Boro Council convened last evening in special session, there was a long discussion on the electric rates for boro consumption as submitted by the Pennsylvania Power company.

Robert Curry, fifth ward councilman, has long contended that the rates charged by the Power company is too high. And several months ago, the Boro hired an engineer from Cincinnati to make a survey of the electric light situation in the boro. He recommended that the Boro seek a lower rate. Mr. Curry says that the Power company furnishes current at a lower rate for domestic users on Woodside avenue, which is part of Ellwood, than the boro pays for street lights in that section and he also maintains that the company provides a lower rate for the National Tube company than they do for the Boro.

Louis B. Round of the Power company has submitted two new contracts to the Boro, it is understood. One contract called for an approximate reduction of $3,600 per year and a later contract offered a $782 additional concession, it was said.

The Boro pays the company approximately $61,960 per year for current. The Boro's contract expires last November and until an agreement is reached, current will be purchased at the former rate.

The Power company will submit another new contract, it was said, and Council will then confer with their engineer. Action is expected to be taken at the March meeting.

A petition that the Frank G. Smith property (old Kraus farm) in Wayne township be incorporated into the boro was presented and referred to a committee for investigation. The property, directly north of Ewing Park, is being prepared for a new building development.

The boro manager and solicitor were instructed to attend a hearing at Beaver tomorrow morning when the Yoder Brothers of Rochester will make application before the Public Utilities company for the operation of buses between Rochester and Ellwood.

DR. ELLIS FORST MAKES ADDRESS

Pittsburgh Man Is Heard At Valentine Party Of Kiwanis Club On Tuesday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 19.—Diseases of the circulatory system, those of heart and blood vessels, were analyzed in an informative and instructive manner last evening by Dr. Ellis Forst, oldest internist of the Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh, to members of the Kiwanis club, their wives and invited guests, including the Nurses association, medical profession, board of education and teachers of the Ellwood schools, at a dinner meeting held at the Trinity Lutheran church dining room.

It was the annual valentine party of the club, and because that day is generally associated with heart "afflictions", Dr. H. E. Helling, who was in charge of the program, made arrangements for a fitting address on that subject. Dr. Mullin, cardiologist of the Mercy hospital, was scheduled to speak but was unable to come because of illness.

Heart disease is the greatest cause of death today, according to the speaker.

Four conditions: rheumatic fever, syphilis, hardening of arteries and high blood pressure, are responsible for cardiac diseases.

High blood pressure and hardening of the arteries are important, he said, only because of them disastrous things happen. If it affects the brain, a stroke occurs; if it affects the coronary artery, instant death occurs. Coronary occlusion is the hardening of the artery leading to the heart, and when a blood clot hits that artery, death is instantaneous. What used to be termed acute indigestion was really coronary occlusion.

In addition to heart conditions being hereditary, conditions of modern life, too much smoking, too little sleep, and many other factors were given as contributing to younger people, especially men in their late twenties, being stricken with heart ailments.

Most people do not know they have a heart condition until it cannot be altered. He urged everyone to have a complete check-up with their doctor twice every year.

Proceeding the address, beautiful vocal selections were contributed by Miss Roberta and Roland Louder, twins, of Pittsburgh. Miss Irene Rotnour was the accompanist. The singing was in charge of Boyd B. Barrett, and music for group singing was played by Miss Marjorie Streeter.

Percy Lutton, president of the club, presided, with the invocation being offered by Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck. A delectable chicken dinner was served by the church women at long tables decorated with patriotic colors.

Announcement was made of a board of directors meeting to be held tonight at nine o'clock at the home of George Blank, Wayne avenue.

North Sewickley Resident Called

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 19.—Fred Clifford Thompson, aged 49, of North Sewickley township, died at 6:05 o'clock Monday of complications in the Beaver Valley General hospital.

Mr. Thompson served overseas in the World War in Battery C, Heavy Field Artillery, Seventh Division, and had been employed for the past 20 years as an enameler at the Standard Sanitary plant, Northside, Pittsburgh.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Margaret A. Thompson, one daughter, Juanita, and one son, Eugene, both at home; three brothers, Claude Thompson, Beaver Falls; Victor Thompson, Alliquippa; and Ervin Thompson, Massillon, O.; and one sister, Mrs. J. M. Blazier, of Baden. Other relatives live in Ellwood and New Castle.

North Sewickley Twp. School Plans Passed

State Approves Plans For 10-Room New Building And 7-Room Addition

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 19.—If you have any tears to shed, prepare to shed them for the Little Red Schoolhouse, of fable and song, which is fast becoming extinct in this district.

There seems to be two schools of thought regarding the passing of the little one-room school. There are those who regret their passing, probably because of sentimental reasons more than any other, while others see in their "demise" a forward step in modern education, as consolidated buildings take their place.

Twelve one-room buildings in North Sewickley township will become a memory in a short time, as members of the North Sewickley Township school board at their regular meeting last evening completed final arrangements for the building of a ten-room consolidated building in the south end of the township, near the Grange hall, and a 7-room addition to the present two-room building at Locust Grove. There is a total of fourteen schools in the township.

Plans for the buildings as drawn by B. J. McCandless, local architect, have been approved by the state department of education and will now be submitted to the W. P. A. district office for final approval with work to begin as soon as final approval is secured.

At the last election, voters of the township authorized the floating of a $45,000 bond issue to cover the cost of supplies and materials for the new buildings. The W. P. A. grant for labor will amount to about $100,000.

School districts receive $200 a year from the state for each school of the "little red" variety abandoned.

Mr. McCandless said final approval has been secured for the erection of an 8-room building in Racoon township, near Alliquippa, and that construction would begin at once.

"BLUBBER BOYS" ON MAT MONDAY

Golden Greek Meets Jones; Holy Cross U. Matman Is Also Coming Here

Indications point to a banner crowd when George Macracostas, called in Paris, the "Golden Greek", and reputed European heavyweight champion meets Marvin Jones, former Tennessee U. grizzer and reported Southern Conference champion in a 10-round wrestling bout, under Australian rules, Monday night in The Arena.

Macracostas, who believes he can out-wrestle the well known Jim London, is said to have won his laurels in Rome in 1940. When London was in Athens the "Golden Greek" issued a defi to the Greek-American but Jim sailed for home and the match did not materialize.

Since Macracostas arrival in the United States, London has announced his retirement so the "Golden Greek" is now out to upset every "rassling" opponent he meets.

Under the laws of the state, it is dockered as an exhibition match but fans feel they'll see a multitude of holds and perhaps some new stunts by the newcomers to our shores.

Sports A Monocle! That tall, dignified chap who sports a monocle, Lord Albert Mills, whom we shall hereafter refer to as "Lord Al", lost to the "Beautiful" Angel but he hopes to down the man the Jefferson A. C. calls The Superman. No one knows The Superman; at least we don't.

He has hurled challenge after challenge to topnotchers and claims that no one in the country can pin his shoulders to the mat. "Lord Al" and The Superman are scheduled for eight six-minute rounds or a fall.

Bibber McCoy, a Holy Cross U. lad, who smashed his way as fullback through many lines and who caught on the varsity team is in for an Evening's Evenin' when he tackles the villain of the mat, Cowboy Whitey Govro in a five six-minute bout or to one fall. The Cowboy is regular Bibber to a fall.

It is peculiar, nevertheless true, that many former college boys are now earning their cakes on the mat. Being intelligent and athletically inclined, they quickly take to wrestling. Most of them become well known, for instance, Gus Sonnenberg, Joe Savoldi, et al.

The matmen may be "blubber boys." However, it is dollars to doughnuts there isn't an ounce of fat on their frames.

Mounties Whip New Wilmington

Mt. Jackson Hands "Greyhounds" Cootly 39-36 Setback Tuesday Night

New Wilmington High's hopes of garnering a third consecutive Section 20 cage title suffered a crushing blow Tuesday night.

The lanky "Greyhounds" fell before Mt. Jackson High's sturdy hoopers, 39-36, in one of the most nerve tugging games played at Mt. Jackson this season. The reversal dropped New Wilmington to second place.

The "Mounties" marched ahead 10-5 as the first period ended. New Wilmington got going in the second and left the hardwood at intermission time with a tie, 19-19. The "Mounties" regained the lead with an impressive rally in the third. New Wilmington trailed 34-29 as the final chapter got underway.

Then came one of the wildest and most thrilling episodes. New Wilmington, fighting desperately to overtake their foes, managed to knot the count again, 34-34. Bradley dropped a side shot to put the K. Pulaski players ahead again. Tall Kenny Cathcart kept the "Greyhounds" in the game with a timely shot.

The clock showed 40 seconds left with the score even, 36-36. Pete Razzano stepped to the foul mark and tallied a charity heave to put Mt. Jackson in front. After New Wilmington missed several shots, the "Mounties" took the ball and raced toward their bucket. P. Razzano took a rebound and tallied as the game ended.

Pete Razzano, easily one of the most talented hands in the circuit, annexed 19 points for Mt. Jackson. Cathcart and Pearson led New Wilmington's attack. Paul Minner, who was relegated to the sidelines by a fractured wrist several weeks ago, played about a quarter for the losers.

If Union disposes of Wampum this afternoon, New Wilmington and Wampum will end in a tie for the league championship.

Stock Market Weaker Today

Nervousness Occasioned By Far Eastern Situation Affects Trend

By LESLIE GOULD (International News Service Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The stock market was weak today, losing 1 to 2 points, on increased nervousness over the Far Eastern situation.

Biggest individual decline was 2 points in DuPont.

Steels were under pressure, declines running to over a point in U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Crucible and Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

Douglas Aircraft and American Airlines lost over a point each. Other issues to drop a point or more included American Telephone, Westinghouse, J. I. Case and Eastman Kodak. Oils were heavy, Standard of N. J. and Texas Corp. losing large fractions. Rails held declines to small proportions, while utilities were comparatively steady.

Motor losses were held to less than a point. Rubbers eased. Montgomery Ward was one of the few issues to rule higher.

The London stock market was firm.

Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Lieut. Col. Thomas R. Phillips, one of the army's leading exponents of modern war methods, warned that United States ground force tactics are inferior to those of other powers and that this country will "pay for it in needless dead and wounded" unless "traditionalists" and "conservatism" are ousted from vital military posts.

Writing on "Traditionalism and Military Defeat" in the Infantry Journal magazine, Phillips, now attached to the Puerto Rican department general staff, contended that "Our army never has had a body of ardent professional students who were cognizant of the realities of war. In consequence, we have never had a good army in peacetime. This is as true now as at any other time in our history."

Seeks New Tactics
A former instructor in the command and general staff school, Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., Phillips long has attempted to inject into the army the need for revolutionizing tactics. He charged that American army officials have been slow to profit by the successful methods displayed by Germany in the present European conflict and in 1918. Phillips asserted that "traditionalism and formalism in armies has been a frequent cause of defeat as military incompetence." He deplored the shortage of tanks, contending it was "exclusively our fault."

"We refused to recognize their possibilities, although many individual officers did," Phillips wrote, "and the problem was further complicated by fear on the part of horse lovers that more tanks meant fewer horses."

Declined To Reorganize
He also charged that the U. S. army declined to reorganize ground force units into "self-contained combat teams" that could operate without support from other units until Nazi Germany demonstrated their striking power in the Polish invasion. He continued:

"There are few enough capable American military students, but even rarer is it to find one of them in an influential position where policies are made."

"Now all one hears on maneuvers involves combat teams endowed with various esoteric names applied to give them the appearance of being original in our own army."

Phillips proposed that army tactics be changed every "two or three years" and added:

"Since the World war, we have shown little recognition of the transformation of war."

"Until the professional student attains full stature in our he-man army and ousts the conservative and administrator from control, we shall continue to lag among armies and shall pay for it again, as we have in the past, in needless dead and wounded, in lost battles, and even lost wars."

Half Million Sugar Maple Trees To Be Tapped In State

HARRISBURG, Feb. 19.—Preparations are under way by owners of sugar maple groves throughout Pennsylvania for the tapping of more than a half-million sugar maple trees during the latter part of February and the beginning of March. W. E. Montgomery, chief of the division of management in the Department of Forests and Waters, said today.

Maple sugar sap contains, on an average, about 3 per cent sugar but many trees have a content as low as 1 per cent and some as high as 10 per cent. The department is co-operating with agricultural experiment stations in the selective breeding of trees with a high sugar content. These experiments are expected to develop vigorous trees with increased sap production qualities. A total of 15 gallons of sap is the average for an individual tree, but large trees have produced as much as 40 gallons of sap in one season. The sugar maple tree is common in Pennsylvania, being especially abundant in the northern part where it is one of the principal species in the beech, birch, maple type of forest. The stock survey of the state forests which was recently completed shows there are over 10,000,000 sugar maple trees four inches and over in diameter on the 1,654,000 acres. This is equivalent to 41 million cubic feet. The volume of sugar maple trees on the state forests which are eight inches or over in diameter, is approximately 107 million board feet. The current annual growth of sugar maple on the state forests was found to be 6 per cent, while the average annual increment for all other species is 5.1 per cent.

Since 1910 private woodland owners have purchased 525,000 sugar maple seedlings for planting purposes from the state forest tree nurseries administered by the Department of Forests and Waters. Since maple trees are tolerant of shade, they are often planted in mixture with other species.

The evening was spent in playing bingo and several prizes were awarded during the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guests were present from New Castle, Columbiana, O., and Bessemer.
